

Connections; Installment 1

Suspected witch Annalette Sola is unable to find any escape from the 17th century Massachusetts colonists and their frenzied fear of witches. What will she do when a witch hunter is called in?

World-renowned witch hunter William Leonard has no time for a woman – especially a suspected witch – in his life, but is tormented by the irreconcilable differences between his job and his attraction to Annalette. What will he do when his lack of action against Annalette, and his abilities are questioned by the colonists?

"I know you are a witch hunter," Annalette accused. William did not deny a thing, just did a quick sweep of the ground with his vision before he rested it on her again. "That is not why I am here."
